

SHAHEEN IS DEAD

"In my ankles and arms and shoulders, I have swelling and pain always. I cannot even stretch my arms and legs. It feels like someone is pulling my nerves from the inside" said Shaheen, who was receiving treatment for breathing difficulties.

She contracted tuberculosis four times after being exposed to the toxic gas leak. She weighed only 27 kg, had swelling all over and endured chronic pain shortly before she died in 2004.

DOW. CLEAN UP BHOPAL NOW.